Parental Complaints Policy

Emanuel School is committed to providing a high level of teaching and pastoral care for its pupils. However, if a parent does have a complaint they can expect it to be treated by the school with care and in accordance with this procedure.

Complaints are dealt with either informally or formally. The school hopes that it will be able to resolve most complaints informally (stage 1) but there is a formal process (stage 2 and 3) which should be used should the situation arise.

If a parent or guardian of a pupil has a complaint or a significant concern in relation to that pupil, the school will seek to resolve that complaint promptly, fairly and, if possible, informally.

Separate procedures apply if a pupil has been expelled or has been asked to leave (Exclusion Policy) or if a child protection concern has arisen (Safeguarding and Child Protection Policy).

A concern about the safety of a pupil should be notified immediately to an appropriate member of staff who will be best placed to take urgent action. It should also be confirmed in writing to the headmaster.

References to working days mean Monday to Friday, when the school is open during term time. The dates of terms are published on the school's website. In the event that the application of this definition is likely to introduce excessive delays, due to intervening school holidays, the school's approach is to take sensible and reasonable steps so as to minimise any hardship or unfairness arising from such delays. Where there are exceptional circumstances resulting in a delay to the timescales for a stage of the complaints procedure, the school will notify the parents and inform them of the new timescales as soon as possible.

Informal Resolution (stage 1)

- A parent with a complaint shall wherever possible, in the first instance, contact the pupil's form tutor who shall do everything possible to resolve the matter straightaway to the parent's satisfaction.
- The form tutor will make a record of the complaint and resolution and upload this as a secure note on EMA. The form tutor should let their head of year and head of section know they have done this.
- If the form tutor is not able to resolve the matter alone, he or she may seek assistance from the head of year/head of school/ head of department or from a deputy head or the headmaster.
- Where a parent initially contacts a head of year, head of school, head of department, deputy head or the headmaster, he or she will refer the complaint to the pupil's form tutor unless, they feel it is not appropriate to do so.
- The form tutor, or relevant colleague (as above) will acknowledge the complaint within 2 working days and alert their line manager to the fact they have received a complaint
- The parent will receive a response to the complaint within 10 working days of the complaint being made.

- If a parent is not satisfied that the matter has been resolved they may proceed to stage 2 of this procedure.

Formal Resolution (stage 2 and 3)

The procedure for making a formal complaint to the school is as follows:

- a) Any parent who wishes to make a formal complaint should make the details of the complaint or concern known to the headmaster in writing stating that it is made under stage 2 of the school's complaints procedure.
- b) The headmaster will acknowledge the complaint within 5 working days. The headmaster may request further particulars of the complaint from the parent if required.
- c) The headmaster will consider the complaint and investigate it as appropriate (which may involve delegating tasks to the deputy head: pastoral or to other members of staff).
- d) In most cases, the headmaster will speak to and/or meet with the parent concerned to discuss the matter within 10 working days of the complaint being made. If possible, a resolution will be reached at this stage.
- e) The parent will normally be informed of the headmaster's decision and his reasons within 15 working days of the formal complaint being made.
- f) If the parent is not satisfied with the headmaster's response to their complaint at stage 2, they should proceed to stage 3 of this procedure and contact the clerk of the governing body in writing giving full details of the complaint and stating the outcome which is sought. The clerk, Mr Roy Blackwell is contactable on roy.blackwell@uws-gch.co.uk.
- g) The clerk to the governors will normally acknowledge the request in writing within 5 working days and make provision for a hearing before a panel of three persons who have not been involved in the matters detailed in the complaint and in compliance with the Education (Independent School Standards) Regulations 2014. One member of this panel will be independent of the management and running of the school.
- h) The role of the panel is to establish the facts surrounding the complaints by considering the documents provided by both parties and any representations made by the parties at the hearing. The panel is not empowered to make any financial award nor impose sanctions on staff, pupils or parents. At the hearing the panel will attempt to achieve a resolution.
- i) The hearing will normally take place within 15 working days of the clerk receiving the details of the complaint (the panel will not usually sit during school holidays). Parents will be given at least 7 working days notice of the date of the hearing and of the composition of the panel.
- j) If the panel deems it necessary, it may require that further particulars of the complaint or any related matter be supplied in advance of the hearing. Copies of such particulars shall be supplied to all parties not later than 5 working days prior to the hearing.

Emanuel School

- k) Where a parent has requested a hearing, it will take place unless the parent later indicates that they are now satisfied and do not wish to proceed further. Unless such notice is given, the panel hearing will proceed whether or not the parent decides to attend and will consider the parent's complaint in their absence
- l) Parents and any person being complained about may attend the hearing and may be accompanied. A parent may be accompanied by a friend or relative. Legal representation is neither necessary nor appropriate but if the parent wishes to be accompanied by a legally qualified person, acting in his or her professional capacity, the school must be notified at least 5 working days before the hearing.
- m) The hearing will be a private proceeding chaired by one member of the panel (chosen by themselves). All those attending the hearing are expected to show courtesy, restraint and good manners or, after due warning, the hearing may be adjourned or terminated at the discretion of the chair. If the hearing is terminated for this reason, the original decision will stand. Any parent who is dissatisfied with any aspect of the way the hearing is conducted must say so before the proceedings go any further and their comment will be minuted.
- n) The complainant, the chair of governors and head, and where relevant the person complained about, will receive a copy of any findings and recommendations within 5 working days of the hearing. The decision of the panel will be final. A record of this will be kept on the school premises (for examination by the governors and the head).
- o) If there is a problem the clerk will inform those concerned within 2 working days that there will be further consideration or a delay.

Confidentiality and records

- a) Written records will be kept of all complaints at stage 2 or 3, including whether they are resolved at stage 2 or at a hearing. The school will also record any action arising as a result of these complaints, regardless of whether the complaint has been upheld.
- b) The correspondence, statements and records of complaints are to be kept confidential except so far as where a body conducting an inspection under section 109 of the Education Act 2008, or the Secretary of State, requests access to the records or other documents involved in the complaint so far as is required of the school by paragraph 33 of the Education (Independent Schools Standards) Regulations 2014 or where any other legal obligation prevails.
- c) The school is required to declare the number of complaints registered under stage 3 of the formal procedure during the previous year to parents of pupils or prospective pupils and on request to the Chief Inspector, the Secretary of State, or a body approved under section 163 (1)(b) of the Education Act 2002.

Statement of the number of complaints registered under stage 3 of the formal procedure for the academic year September 2017-August 2018: zero.
