

Staff Recruitment Policy and Procedure

Purpose

The purpose of the school's recruitment policy is:

- to ensure that the best possible staff are recruited on the basis of their qualifications, abilities and suitability for the position;
- to create a culture of safe recruitment, by consistently using recruitment procedures that help to deter, reject or identify people who might abuse children;
- to ensure that all job applicants are considered fairly and consistently;
- to ensure that no job applicant is treated unfairly on the basis of race, colour, nationality, ethnic or national origin, pregnancy/maternity leave, religion or religious belief, gender, gender reassignment, or sexual orientation, marital or civil partner status, disability or age;
- to ensure compliance with all relevant legislation, recommendations and guidance including the statutory guidance published by the Department for Education (DfE), Keeping children safe in education (September 2018) (KCSIE), the Prevent Duty Guidance for England and Wales 2015 (the Prevent Duty Guidance) and any guidance or code of practice published by the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS); and
- to safeguard and promote the welfare of children and young people by carrying out all necessary pre-employment checks.

Scope

This policy sets out the duties and responsibilities of all staff in relation to recruiting and vetting staff, contractors or volunteers or any individual working in any capacity at, or visiting the school.

The policy applies in relation to everyone who works at the school including those who may not have direct contact with children as a result of their job.

Recruitment policy statement

The school is committed to providing the best possible care and education to its pupils, and to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people. The school is also committed to providing a supportive and flexible working environment to all members of staff. To achieve these aims, it is of fundamental importance that the school attracts, recruits and retains staff, workers and volunteers of the highest calibre who share this commitment.

Recruitment of ex-offenders policy statement

The school will not unfairly discriminate against any applicant for employment on the basis of conviction or other details disclosed. The school makes appointment decisions on the basis of merit and ability. If an applicant has a criminal record this will not automatically bar them from employment with the school. Each case will be decided on its merits in accordance with the objective assessment criteria set out in the procedure.

Recruitment and selection procedure

All applicants for employment will be required to complete an application form including details of their academic and employment history and their suitability for the role. Should there be any gaps in academic or employment history, a satisfactory explanation must be provided. A curriculum vitae will not be accepted in place of the completed application form, but may also be submitted.

Applicants will receive a job description/person specification for the role applied for. All internally and externally advertised posts should include specific selection criteria. Selection criteria should include educational qualifications, relevant training, experience, knowledge and skills, outside interests relevant to the job and interpersonal skills.

Application forms, job descriptions/person specifications and the school's Child Protection and Safeguarding Policy are available to download from the school's website or can be printed and forwarded to applicants on request.

Applicants will be shortlisted on the basis of the evidence provided about how well they meet the criteria in the person specification. Shortlisted applicant(s) may then be invited to attend a formal interview at which their relevant skills and experience will be discussed in more detail. A practical test or example teaching session will usually be included.

Every recruitment exercise must involve a member of the HR team, director of finance and administration (DFA) or the headmaster who will support and guide the recruiting manager through the process and ensure compliance with legal requirements, official guidance and school policy. At least one member of a selection panel must hold a certificate of Safer Recruitment training. Detailed records of the process should be kept for six months after the recruitment selection exercise has been completed (unless the successful candidate requires a Certificate of Sponsorship in which case the unsuccessful selected candidates' records should be kept for the duration of the successful candidate's employment). These notes should be kept by the HR officer.

Following the selection process, the appointment, salary level and other terms and conditions of employment must be discussed and agreed with the headmaster or DFA. If it is decided to make an employment offer following the formal interview, offers will be conditional on:

- the agreement of a mutually acceptable start date and the signing of a contract incorporating the school's standard terms and conditions of employment;
- verification of the applicant's identity;
- the receipt of two references (one from the applicant's most recent employer) which the school consider to be satisfactory;
- (where the position provides the opportunity for regular contact with children) the receipt of an enhanced disclosure from the DBS which the school considers to be satisfactory;

Emanuel School

- where the position amounts to 'regulated activity'¹, confirmation that the applicant is not named on the Children's Barred List²;
- information about whether the applicant has ever been subject to a direction under section 142 of the Education Act 2002;
- verification of the applicant's medical fitness for the role;
- verification of the applicant's right to work in the UK; and
- verification of academic, professional or other qualifications which required for the post, or which the applicant cites in support of their application; and
- any further checks which the school decides are necessary, including an overseas criminal records check, certificate of good conduct or additional references where an applicant has lived or worked outside of the UK.

For teaching roles, offers will additionally be conditional on:

- information about whether the applicant is prohibited from teaching; and
- where an applicant has carried out teaching work outside of the UK the school will ask the applicant (and their referees) whether they have ever been referred to, or are the subject of a sanction issued by, a regulator of the teaching profession in the countries in which they have carried out teaching work. This will include checking for the existence of any sanctions issued by regulators of the teaching profession in other EEA countries using the Teaching Regulation Agency Teacher Services system.

For senior management roles, offers will additionally be conditional on:

- information about whether the applicant has ever been referred to the Department for Education, or is the subject of a direction under section 128 of the Education and Skills Act 2008.

Medical fitness

The school is legally required to verify the physical and mental fitness of anyone appointed, after an offer of employment has been made but before the appointment can be confirmed. All applicants to whom an offer of employment is made must complete a Health Questionnaire. The school will arrange for the information to be reviewed by the school's medical advisor where any data disclosed indicates that this is required. This information will be reviewed against the physical or mental requirements of the role i.e. proposed timetable, extra-curricular activities, layout of the school etc. The medical advisor may recommend reasonable adjustments in consultation with the applicant. The school may

¹ A person will be considered to be engaging in regulated activity if, as a result of their work, they: will be responsible, on a regular basis in a school for teaching, training, instructing, caring for or supervising children; will carry out paid or unsupervised unpaid work regularly in a school where that work provides an opportunity for contact with children; or engage in intimate or personal care or overnight activity, even if this only happens once.

² The School is not permitted to check the Children's Barred List unless an individual will be engaging in 'regulated activity'. The School is required to carry out an enhanced DBS check for all staff, supply staff and governors who will be engaging in regulated activity. The School can also carry out an enhanced DBS check on a person who would be carrying out regulated activity but for the fact that they do not carry out their duties frequently enough i.e. roles which would amount to regulated activity if carried out more frequently. Each position must therefore be considered by the School in order to decide which checks are appropriate. It is however likely that in nearly all cases the School will be able to carry out an enhanced DBS check and a Children's Barred List check.

also seek a further medical opinion from a specialist or request that the applicant undertakes a full medical assessment.

The school is aware of its duties under the Equality Act 2010. No job offer will be withdrawn without first consulting with the applicant, obtaining medical evidence, considering reasonable adjustments and suitable alternative employment.

Pre-employment checks

In accordance with the recommendations set out in KCSIE 2018 and the requirements of the Education (Independent School Standards) Regulations 2014, the school carries out a number of pre-employment checks in respect of all prospective employees.

In addition to the checks set out below, the school reserves the right to obtain such formal or informal background information about an applicant as is reasonable in the circumstances to determine whether they are suitable to work at the school. This may include internet and social media searches.

In fulfilling its obligations the school does not discriminate on the grounds of race, colour, nationality, ethnic or national origin, religion or religious belief, sex or sexual orientation, marital or civil partner status, disability or age.

The school's single central register (SCR) is used to record the checks undertaken for each member of staff and their outcome, as well as the checks undertaken for volunteers, contractors, supply staff and self-employed workers undertaking work at the school.

Verification of identity, address and qualifications

All applicants invited to an interview will be required to bring with them evidence of identity, right to work in the UK, verification of current address and verification of any qualifications relevant to the role. Where an applicant has changed their name from the documentation provided by any means (e.g. marriage, adoption, statutory declaration) they will be required to provide documentary evidence of the change.

The school asks for the date of birth of all applicants (and proof of this) in accordance with KCSIE 2018. Proof of date of birth is necessary so that the school may verify the applicant's identity, and check for any unexplained discrepancies in their employment and education history. The school does not discriminate on the grounds of age.

References

References will usually be taken up on short listed candidates prior to interview. All offers of employment will be subject to the receipt of a minimum of two references which are considered satisfactory by the school. One of the references must be from the applicant's current or most recent employer. If the current/most recent employment does/did not involve work with children, then the second reference should be from the employer with whom the applicant most recently worked with children (where possible). Neither referee should be a relative or someone known to the applicant solely as a friend.

All referees will be asked whether they believe the applicant is suitable for the job for which they have applied and whether they have any reason to believe that the applicant is unsuitable to work with children. Referees will be asked to confirm that the applicant has not been radicalised so that they do not support terrorism or any form of "extremism"³. All referees will be sent a copy of the job and person specification. If the referee is a current or previous employer, they will also be asked to confirm the following:

- the applicant's dates of employment, salary, job title/duties, reason for leaving, performance, sickness⁴ and disciplinary record;
- whether the applicant has ever been the subject of disciplinary procedures involving issues related to the safety and welfare of children (including any in which the disciplinary sanction has expired), except where the issues were deemed to have resulted from allegations which were found to be false, unsubstantiated or malicious;
- whether any allegations or concerns have been raised about the applicant that relate to the safety and welfare of children or young people or behaviour towards children or young people, except where the allegation or concerns were found to be false, unsubstantiated or malicious; and
- whether the applicant could be considered to be involved in "extremism".

The school will only accept references obtained directly from the referee and it will not rely on documents provided by the applicant. The school will compare references with information given on the application form. Any inconsistencies in the information will be taken up with the applicant and the referee before an appointment is confirmed. The school may make telephone contact with a referee to verify any details provided.

Criminal record checks

The school applies for an enhanced disclosure⁵ from the DBS and a check of the Children's

³ "Extremism is vocal or active opposition to fundamental British values, including democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty and mutual respect and tolerance of different faiths and beliefs." KCSIE

⁴ Questions about health or sickness records will only be included in reference requests sent out after any offer of employment has been made.

⁵ The DBS and Home Office have developed filtering rules for spent old/minor convictions as follows:

For those aged 18 or over at the time of an offence

An adult conviction for an offence committed in the United Kingdom will be removed from a DBS disclosure if:

- eleven years have elapsed since the date of conviction;
- it is the person's only offence; and
- it did not result in a custodial sentence.

It will not be removed under any circumstances if it appears on a list of 'specified offences' which must always be disclosed. If a person has more than one offence on their criminal record, then details of all convictions will be included.

A caution received when a person was aged 18 or over for an offence committed in the United Kingdom will not be disclosed if six years have elapsed since the date it was issued, and if it does not appear on the list of 'specified offences'.

For those aged under 18 at the time of an offence

A conviction for an offence committed in the United Kingdom will be removed from a DBS disclosure if:

- five and a half years have elapsed since the date of conviction;
- it is the person's only offence; and
- it did not result in a custodial sentence.

Again, the conviction will not be removed under any circumstances if it appears on the list of 'specified offences', or if a person has more than one offence on their criminal record.

A caution received when a person was aged under 18 for an offence committed in the United Kingdom will not be disclosed if two years have elapsed since the date it was issued and if it does not appear on the list of "specified offences".

Emanuel School

Barred List (now known as an Enhanced Check for Regulated Activity) in respect of all positions at the school which amount to 'regulated activity' as defined in the Safeguarding Vulnerable Groups Act 2006 (as amended).

The Enhanced Check for Regulated Activity identifies whether an applicant is barred from working with children by inclusion on the Children's Barred List and provides other relevant suitability information.

Roles which are carried out on an unpaid/voluntary basis will only amount to regulated activity if they meet the criteria and are carried out on an unsupervised basis. It is for the school to decide whether a role amounts to 'regulated activity' taking into account all the relevant circumstances, and with regard to annex F of KCSIE. However, nearly all posts at the school amount to regulated activity. Limited exceptions could include support posts undertaken on a temporary basis outside of term time or voluntary supervised posts.

The DBS issues a disclosure certificate to the subject of the check only, rather than the school. It is a condition of employment that the original disclosure certificate is provided to the school prior to the start of work. Employment is conditional upon the original certificate being provided and it being considered satisfactory by the school.

If there is a delay in receiving a DBS disclosure the headmaster has discretion to allow an individual to begin work pending receipt of the certificate. This will only be allowed if all other checks, including a clear check of the Children's Barred List (where the position amounts to regulated activity), have been completed, a full risk assessment is carried out and appropriate supervision has been put in place.

DBS checks will be requested for applicants with recent periods of overseas residence and those with little/no UK residence. Where an applicant has lived overseas after the age of 16 and a DBS check is not considered sufficient, the school will carry out further appropriate checks, such as a criminal record check from the relevant jurisdiction(s,) and/or a certificate of good conduct (as applicable). These checks are carried out with reference to Home Office advice on overseas criminal records checks, and the checks must be sufficient to satisfy the school that the applicant is suitable for the role they have been appointed to.⁶ In most instances, the individual must make the application themselves and this must be done before they start work at the school.

Where a criminal record check or certificate of good conduct is not received before the individual starts, or the country in question does not provide such services, the school will obtain alternative further checks – usually in the form of additional references. Where overseas checks are delayed, the school will carry out a risk assessment and put in place appropriate measures until the checks are completed.

Staff joining the school from another school in England (with less than a three month gap between roles), in a role that brought them regularly into contact with children/young persons, may start without a new enhanced DBS certificate. The existing DBS certificate must be brought to the school, and all other pre-appointment checks (including a barred list check for those in regulated activity) must be completed.

Refer to Appendix I for Flowchart of Disclosure and Barring Service Criminal Record checks and Barred List checks.

Prohibition from Teaching check

The school is required to check whether staff who carry out 'teaching work'⁷ are prohibited from doing so. The school uses the Teacher Services system to check whether successful applicants are the subject of a prohibition, or interim prohibition order issued by a professional conduct panel.

This information must be provided to fully assess the suitability of an applicant for a role which involves 'teaching work'. Where an applicant is not currently prohibited from teaching but has been the subject of a referral to, or hearing before, the TRA (or equivalent body) whether or not that resulted in the imposition of a sanction, or where a sanction has lapsed or been lifted, the school will consider whether the facts of the case render the applicant unsuitable to work at the school.

The school carries out this check for roles which involve 'teaching work'. In addition, for appointments made on or after 5th September 2016, where an applicant has carried out teaching work outside of the UK in the last 5 years, the school will ask the applicant (and their referees) whether they have ever been referred to, or are the subject of a sanction issued by, a regulator of the profession in countries in which they have carried out teaching work. This will include checking for the existence of any sanctions issued by regulators of the teaching profession in other EEA countries using the Teacher Services system.

Prohibition from management check

The school is required to check whether any applicant for a management position is subject to a direction under section 128 of the Education and Skills Act 2008 which prohibits, disqualifies or restricts them from being involved in the management of an independent school (a section 128 direction).

This check applies to internal and external appointments to the following roles:

- headmaster;
- teaching posts on the senior leadership team;
- teaching posts which carry a departmental head role; and
- support staff posts on the senior leadership team.

It also applies to proprietorial appointments to the governing body. It is obtained through the Teacher Services system.

It is the school's position that in order to fully assess the suitability of an applicant for a management role it must be provided with the above information. Where an applicant is not currently prohibited from management but has been the subject of a referral to, or hearing before, the Department for Education or other appropriate body whether that resulted in the imposition of a section 128 direction or other sanction, or where a section

⁷ The Teachers' Disciplinary (England) Regulations 2012 state that the following activities amount to 'teaching work':

- planning and preparing lessons and courses for pupils;
- delivering lessons to pupils;
- assessing the development, progress and attainment of pupils; and
- reporting on the development, progress and attainment of pupils.

The above activities do not amount to "teaching work" if they are supervised by a qualified teacher or other person nominated by the headmaster. If in any doubt or if the applicant has taught previously, or may teach in future, the check will be undertaken, including for sports coaches & teaching assistants.

Emanuel School

If a direction or other sanction has lapsed or been lifted, the school will consider whether the facts of the case render the applicant unsuitable to work at the school.

Staff on short term / seasonal contracts

Some staff, such as sports professionals or admissions interviewers do not work all year round at the school and may have a gap of employment from the school of longer than three months. When first joining, the school will carry out all recruitment checks in the same way as a permanent member of staff. When returning after a gap, an update to their employment history and medical fitness will be requested.

Those staff who are likely to be involved in activities with the school on a regular basis may be required to sign up to the DBS update service as this permits the school to obtain up to date criminal records information without delay prior to each new activity in which they participate. Where required, an updated DBS is necessary before staff can commence work at the school. See Appendix 3 for further details.

Governors

School governors will have an identity check and an enhanced DBS check. They will also have a barred list check if they undertake any regulated activity.

Where governors are also trustees of the United Westminster Schools Foundation, they are considered to be proprietorial governors. For those governors, the SCR will also record prohibition from management checks, and any other checks (such as overseas checks) that may be appropriate to the role.

Supply Staff

Teaching staff agencies engaged by the school must complete the same checks on supply teachers that the school is required to complete for its own staff. The school requires confirmation that these checks have been completed before supply teachers can commence work at the school.

The school will independently verify the identity of teaching supply staff supplied by an agency and will require the provision of the original DBS disclosure certificate before they can commence work at the school.

Employees of contractors or third parties, and agency staff

Contractors and third parties engaged by the school must complete the appropriate checks for their employees. The school requires confirmation that these checks have been completed before employees of the contractor or third party can commence work at the school.

When appointing new buildings and works contractors, the estates director will ask for confirmation from the employer that appropriate checks have been completed. Where a contractor is unable to carry out the checks themselves, the school will be able to complete the checks. Once confirmation has been received contractors will be added to the school's Approved Contractors List. Contractors likely to work on site during term time will be required to hold an enhanced DBS. Where a contractor is required to work on site but is not on the Approved Contractor List or able to provide evidence of an enhanced DBS on arrival, a member of the estates department will supervise the contractor at all times. Out of term time, a risk assessment will be undertaken if contractors do not hold an enhanced DBS certificate. If contractors are likely to come into contact with children, they will be supervised at all times.

Emanuel School

Refer to appendix 2 for details on the procedure for checking employees of third parties.

Agencies who supply staff to the school must also complete the appropriate pre-employment checks. Again, the school requires confirmation that these checks have been completed before an individual can commence work at the school.

The school will independently verify the identity and DBS certificate if not clear (so a risk assessment may be carried out) of staff before they can commence work at the school.

Trainee/student teachers

The school will undertake all the usual checks for a member of new teaching staff for any trainee teacher who is salaried by the school. Where a trainee teacher is fee-funded, the initial teacher training provider will carry out the necessary checks and provide the school with written confirmation that it has carried out all required pre-appointment checks, and judged the individual to be suitable to work with children.

The school will independently verify the identity of staff before they can commence work at the school.

Visiting Professionals

From time to time the school will invite individuals who attend the school in connection with the pupils and who have a professional role, i.e. educational psychologists, social workers, support workers or health related professionals.

Before visiting professionals are able to work at the school, the member of staff making the arrangements must ensure that they receive written confirmation from the employing body that a clear DBS check has been completed.

The level of DBS check required will depend on the type of work carried out. In most instances the school will ask that an enhanced DBS check is completed. Where the activities include personal care (washing, dressing or health care), a children's barred list check must also be carried out. If visits to the school become more regular, the school may ask for additional safeguarding checks to be completed.

When a visiting professional arrives, staff must check their ID to ensure imposters do not gain access to children.

Volunteers

The school will request an enhanced DBS disclosure and Children's Barred List information for all volunteers undertaking regulated activity with pupils at or on behalf of the school (the definition of regulated activity set out previously will be applied to all volunteers).

The school will request an enhanced DBS disclosure without Children's Barred List information on all volunteers who do not undertake regulated activity – where duties are subject to regular, day to day supervision by a member of staff. Under no circumstances will the school permit an unchecked volunteer to have unsupervised contact with pupils.

It is the school's policy that a new DBS certificate is required for volunteers who will engage in regulated activity but who have not been involved in any activities with the school for three consecutive months or more. Those volunteers who are likely to be involved in activities with the school on a regular basis may be required to sign up to the DBS update service as this permits the school to obtain up to date criminal records information without delay prior to each new activity in which a volunteer participates.

In addition the school will seek to obtain such further suitability information about a volunteer as it considers appropriate. This may include: formal or informal information provided by staff, parents and other volunteers; references from the volunteer's place of work or other relevant source; and an informal safer recruitment interview.

Visitors, visiting speakers and the Prevent Duty

The school does not have the power to request any checks for visitors (for example pupil relatives or other visitors attending a sports day) or visiting speakers.

The Prevent Duty Guidance requires clear protocols for ensuring that any visiting speakers, whether invited by staff or pupils, are suitable and supervised.

All visiting speakers will be required to sign in and out at the security gate, wear a visitor badge at all times and be escorted by a fully vetted member of staff between appointments. The school will also obtain such formal or informal background information about a visiting speaker as is reasonable in the circumstances to decide whether to invite and/or permit a speaker to attend the school. In doing so the school will always have regard to Prevent Duty Guidance and the definition of "extremism" set out in KCSIE.

In fulfilling its Prevent Duty obligations the school does not discriminate on the grounds of race, colour, nationality, ethnic or national origin, religion or religious belief, sex or sexual orientation, marital or civil partner status, disability or age. The school reserves the right to obtain such information on any other person appointed to work for or at the school.

Recruitment of ex-offenders procedure

All positions within the school are exempt from the provisions of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974. All applicants must therefore declare all previous convictions and cautions, including those which would normally be considered 'spent' except those filtered in accordance with the DBS filtering rules. A failure to disclose a previous conviction (which should be declared) may lead to an application being rejected or, if the failure to disclose is discovered after employment has started, may lead to summary dismissal for gross misconduct. A failure to disclose a previous conviction may amount to a criminal offence.

It is unlawful for the school to employ anyone barred from working with children. It is a criminal offence for any person who is barred from working with children to apply for a position at the school. The school will make a report to the police and/or the DBS if:

- it receives an application from a barred person;
- it is provided with false information in, or in support of an applicant's application; or
- it has serious concerns about an applicant's suitability to work with children.

Assessment criteria

In the event that relevant information (whether in relation to previous convictions or otherwise) is volunteered by an applicant during the recruitment process or obtained through a disclosure check, the school will consider the following factors before reaching a recruitment decision:

- whether the conviction or matter revealed is relevant to the position in question;

Emanuel School

- the seriousness of any offence or other matter revealed;
- the length of time since the offence or other matter occurred;
- whether the applicant has a pattern of offending behaviour or other matters;
- whether the applicant's circumstances have changed since the offending behaviour or other matters; and
- the circumstances around the offence and explanation(s) offered by the applicant.

If the post involves regular contact with children, it is the school's policy to consider it high risk to employ anyone who has been convicted at any time of any the following offences:

- murder, manslaughter, rape, other serious sexual offences, grievous bodily harm or other serious acts of violence; or
- serious class A drug related offences, robbery, burglary, theft, deception or fraud.

If the post involves access to money or budget responsibility, it is the school's policy to consider it a high risk to employ anyone who has been convicted at any time of robbery, burglary, theft, deception or fraud.

If the post involves driving responsibilities, it is the school's policy to consider it a high risk to employ anyone who has been convicted of drink driving within the last ten years.

Assessment procedure

In the event that relevant information is volunteered by an applicant during the recruitment process or obtained through a disclosure check, the school will carry out a risk assessment by reference to the criteria above. The assessment form must be signed by the headmaster or DFA before a position is offered or confirmed.

If an applicant wishes to dispute any information in a disclosure, they may do so by contacting the DBS. In cases where the applicant would be offered a position were it not for the disputed information, the school may, where possible and at its discretion, defer a final decision until the applicant has had opportunity to challenge the information.

Retention and security of disclosure information

The school's policy is to observe the guidance issued or supported by the DBS on the use of disclosure information. In particular, the school will:

- store disclosure information and other confidential documents issued by the DBS in locked, non-portable storage containers, with access restricted to members of the school's HR and senior management team;
- not retain disclosure information or any associated correspondence for longer than is necessary, and for a maximum of six months. The school will keep a record of the date of a disclosure, the name of the subject, the type of disclosure, the position in question, the unique number issued by the DBS and the decision taken;
- ensure that any disclosure information is destroyed securely by shredding; and
- prohibit the photocopying or scanning of any disclosure information without the express permission of the individual to whom the disclosure relates.

Retention of records

The school is legally required to undertake the above pre-employment checks. Therefore, if an applicant is successful in their application, the school will retain on their personnel file any relevant information provided as part of the application process. This will include copies of documents used to verify identity, right to work in the UK, medical fitness and qualifications. Medical information will be used to verify the candidate's mental and physical fitness to carry out their work responsibilities, and may be used to help the School to discharge its obligations as an employer e.g. so that the school may consider reasonable adjustments if an employee suffers from a disability or to assist with any other workplace issue.

This documentation will be retained during the successful applicant's employment with the school. It will be retained in accordance with the retention of records policy after employment terminates. If the application is unsuccessful, all documentation relating to the application will normally be confidentially destroyed after six months.

The same policy applies to any suitability information obtained about volunteers involved with school activities.

Whistleblowing

All staff understand they are expected and encouraged to raise concerns, whether related to the safeguarding and welfare of pupils, the conduct of staff or other matters, during the course of their employment in accordance with the school's policies (including the Whistleblowing Policy, the Safeguarding Policy and the Staff Code of Conduct).

Referrals to the DBS and Teacher Regulation Agency (TRA)

This policy is primarily concerned with the promotion of safer recruitment and details the pre-employment checks that will be undertaken prior to employment being confirmed. Whilst these are pre-employment checks, the school also has a legal duty to make a referral to the DBS in circumstances where an individual:

- has applied to the school despite being barred from working with children; or
- has been removed by the school from working in regulated activity (paid or unpaid), or has resigned prior to being removed, because they have harmed, or pose a risk of harm to, a child.

If the individual referred to the DBS is a teacher, the school may also decide to make a referral to the TRA.

Responsibilities

- All applicants must complete the recruitment documentation honestly and completely, declaring any relevant issue as outlined in the policy.
- Recruiting managers must ensure that selection processes are fair and effective, seeking advice and support from the HR team as appropriate.
- The HR team have responsibility for undertaking checks on all employees, volunteers and contractors according to the policy, and enforcing the requirements.

Emanuel School

- Managers appointing contractors or sessional workers must ensure that details are passed to the HR team to process those checks in sufficient time.
- The designated safeguarding lead has a responsibility for ensuring that this policy and procedure meets the safeguarding needs of the school.
- The headmaster and DFA, with the HR director, have a responsibility to fairly and consistently apply the policy and procedure to ensure fair, safe recruitment practices.
- The governors have a responsibility to ensure that statutory obligations around employment and safeguarding are reflected in this policy.

Appendix 2: Checks for employees of contractors / third parties

To comply with Keeping Children Safe in Education (September 2018) and The Education (Independent Schools Standards) Regulations (2014), the school must carry out checks on anyone who works for the school. No employee of third parties can start work at Emanuel without the relevant safeguarding checks being completed.

Where HR is not involved in the recruitment process, on appointment HoDs must:

- Inform HR and provide:
 - Contact details for employer
 - Contact details for employee who will be working at the school
 - Date individual will first work at school
 - Description of schedule / length of service (as far as known)
 - Details of any qualifications required for the role
- HR will contact the employer and request specific checks are confirmed.

New staff

Where HR is not involved in the recruitment process, on appointment HoDs must:

- Inform HR and provide:
 - Contact details for individual
 - Date individual will first work at school
 - Description of schedule / length of service (as far as known)
 - Any qualifications required to carry out the role
- HR will contact the individual to carry out the same safeguarding checks as a permanent member of staff.
- Once the checks have been completed, HR will confirm with the HoD that the individual can start work

Returning staff

When an individual has previously worked at Emanuel but not in the past 3 months, they will be treated as returning staff. On a returning appointment HoDs must:

- Inform HR and provide:
 - Contact details for individual
 - Confirm individual has previously worked at school
 - Date individual will first work at school
 - Description of schedule / length of service (as far as known)
- HR will contact the individual to ask them to complete a short form (and DBS if required).
- Once the checks have been completed, HR will confirm with the HoD that the individual can start work

DBS checks for returning staff

Returning staff are strongly encouraged to sign up to the DBS Update Service as this allows a quick online check to be carried out each year rather than a new DBS application. Where an individual has worked in a school in the past three months, the school may accept their existing DBS. In both of the scenarios above, the individual must visit HR before their start date to show their original DBS certificate and identity (Passport or Driving Licence). Where the first day is a weekend, they must come in beforehand.
