

Geography – Y8 Learning Outcomes

Skill	Foundation	Developing	Securing	Exceeding	Excelling
Location	I know where a few places are that we have studied.	I know where some of the places we have studied are located.	I know where the places and landscapes we have studied are located.	I know, with confidence where the places and landscapes we have studied are located.	I have a very good depth of knowledge of where the places and landscapes we have studied are located.
Place	I can describe some features of places we have studied.  I know a few things about the local area, UK and countries overseas.	I can describe the features of places we have studied.  I know some things about the local area, the UK and places overseas.	I describe in detail characteristics of places we have studied.  I have decent knowledge and understanding of the UK and places overseas.	I can describe and begin to explain characteristics of places in different locations in the UK and globally.  I have a good level of knowledge and understanding of the local area, the UK and other parts of the world.	I am able to analyse the characteristics of places drawing on my knowledge of a wide range of places.  I have a very good knowledge and understanding of the local area, the UK and other parts of the world.
Interdependence	I can state how humans can cause environments to change.	I can name ways that our actions can lead to changes for us and the environment.	I can describe how people and environments work together & what the results are - good & bad.	I can describe in detail how people and environments work together and what the impacts are.	I can describe and explain links within and between people and places and show how these links help change places and environments.
Human and Physical Geography	I can describe some human and physical features of places.	I can describe in detail the human and physical features of places.	I can describe and compare the physical and human features of places and give reasons for where they are.	I can describe physical & human processes that can change places and explain how some of these changes affect the lives of people.	I can describe and explain in detail the physical and human processes that change places how these changes affect the people living there.
Geographical skills and fieldwork		I can know what information OS maps, photographs and satellite photographs show.  I can describe some fieldwork methods.	I can read and describe a number of different maps, graphs, satellite photographs, atlases.  I describe and explain fieldwork methods used.	I can interpret different maps, atlases, aerial and satellite photographs and use them to support my ideas.  I can explain fieldwork methods used and explain limitations of methodologies.	I can interpret a range of different maps, atlases, aerial and satellite photographs and apply my understanding to topics studied.  I can evaluate the methodologies of fieldwork.