8. ITV filming at Felpham

On Wednesday and Thursday this week we have had ITV news filming a piece at Felpham. The focus was on how schools are providing extra services to support children and how funding challenges are making this increasingly difficult - this follows a recent survey of Headteachers.

The piece will go out in their news bulletins today (Friday 11th) at 6.30pm and at 10.00pm. The students and staff did really well and hopefully the news item will help raise the issue of how poor funding means that support services in schools are under pressure.

Mr Anstiss, Headteacher
