

Horris Hill

Horris Hill was founded in 1888 by a master from Winchester College and has remained at the forefront of prep, and boys', education ever since. As other schools have moved or merged, Horris Hill has remained one of a small group of all-boys boarding and day prep schools, continuously occupying its 85-acre site just south of Newbury.

We are, and always have been, relatively small, at around 120 boys, and the school is renowned for its nurturing ethos, an approach that underpins the success that the boys show in all areas. Our leavers move onto many of the best public schools: primarily Winchester, Radley, Eton, Harrow, Sherborne and Marlborough, although we have boys at 20 different senior schools at present.

Parents choose us because they know that their sons will be able to play a full part in all school activities, and because the staff/pupil ratios will be second to none.

The common room numbers around twenty, and many staff live on site; all play a full part in the life of this busy prep school, across seven days of the week. If you enjoy an ever-varied round of teaching, tutoring, sports coaching, pastoral care, mealtimes, activities, trips and whole-school events, then life at Horris Hill is for you.

The Headmaster, Giles Tollit, has been in post since 2011 and has been appointed Vice Chairman (Elect) of the Boarding Schools Association; he is also on the IAPS Council as the boarding representative.

Teacher of Maths and/or Science

As a school of bright boys, with most heading to academic public schools, both Maths and Science are taught to high standards. Both departments are well resourced and very ably led. There are two fully equipped science laboratories.

We are looking to increase the number of specialists in these core academic subjects and will consider candidates who feel more comfortable teaching one or other of these subjects, as well as those who would like to do both.

This is an opportunity, therefore, for candidates with a variety of profiles. We are very happy to support newly-qualified teachers and will allocate teaching groups accordingly; equally we will consider experienced candidates who wish to teach to scholarship and Common Entrance candidates.

All staff are expected to contribute to the games or non-sporting activities programme on a daily basis, and to boarding life, but inexperience in these areas will not be a disadvantage. Enthusiasm for all aspects of school life will be a key quality of the successful candidate.

Job Description

The job description below contains an outline of the typical functions of the job but may not be an exhaustive list of all possible job responsibilities, tasks, and duties.

As an individual teacher
