

Chemistry Summer Task

Produce a poster, no larger than A3, about the history of the atom.

All text must be written by hand and not printed. Include key scientists, their discoveries and how they link to others. The poster will be peer and teacher assessed.

This is a Chemistry summer task and therefore it should contain some Chemistry. It should include equations, labelled diagrams and chemical names (and not just a big “bubble-writing” title)