

Year 9: ASK Yourself!

Subject: Music

Unit: Solo Performance

	Launching 1-2	Developing 3-4	Progressing 5-6	Mastering 7-9
S kills
	I need to be able to understand and apply some basic performance skills and demonstrate an awareness of communication with the audience / ensemble.	I can partially produce a performance which is mostly accurate and in keeping with the chosen style and demonstrate some communication with the audience / ensemble.	I can confidently produce a generally secure and expressive performance mainly in keeping with the chosen style; demonstrate competent communication with the ensemble and can sustain audience interest throughout most of the performance.	I can expertly produce a secure, controlled and expressive performance in keeping with the chosen style, demonstrate effective communication with the ensemble and can sustain the audience interest throughout the performance.
K nowledge
	I know and can explain some of the features found in the piece I am performing. I can write programme notes that describe some features of my performance.	I know and can explain some of the main features in a musical timeline and can describe some musical features found in a period, composer or genre. I can write descriptive programme notes for my performance.	I confidently know and can explain a range of musical and stylistic features in a musical timeline and can describe many musical features specific to a period, composer or genre. I can write comprehensive programme notes for my performance.	I can explain and apply a wide range of knowledge of musical and stylistic features in a musical timeline and can expertly describe musical features specific to a period, composer or genre. I can write detailed and comprehensive programme notes for my performance.