 S skills
Product analysis	My product analysis page is lacking detail and I need to work on my presentation.	I am able to produce a good product analysis that covers some of the headings given. The page lacks detail.	I can produce an accurate drawing of a cracker and I have written about it in detail, but have not covered all of the headings given.	I am able to analyse an existing cracker in detail. I have a well presented 3D drawing and net with dimensions.
Design ideas	I have drawn a design idea for the graphics that will go on to my cracker	I have a couple of ideas for the graphics of my cracker. My ideas address some of the specification points.	I have 3 neatly drawn and coloured ideas for the cracker graphics.	My ideas are drawn and coloured neatly, they have detailed notes to explain them & address all of the specification points.
Quality of manufacture	I didn't finish making the cracker.	I made some good components to the cracker, but have some parts missing.	I made a good cracker and nearly all of my components are made to a high standard.	I produced a high quality cracker. All components are neatly made and look professional.
 K knowledge
Laser Cutter	I need to learn how to use the laser cutter.	With help I am able to use the laser cutter.	I can use the laser cutter, but may need help still to set it up when new material is added.	I can confidently and independently set up and use the laser cutter.
CAD/CAM	I need to learn what CAD/CAM means and what programs	I know what CAD/CAM stands for and I can name a CAD program and a	I know what the advantages and disadvantages of using CAD/CAM are.	I can confidently talk about the advantages and disadvantages of using CAD/CAM. I and machines are used in school.	CAM machine that we use in school.		can tell others how to use the CAD/CAM that we have in school.

Homework	I struggled to meet homework deadlines.	I completed most of the homework set, but could have made it a better standard.	All my homework is of a good standard. I need to add a bit more detail to my written answers.	I completed all homework to a high standard.
