

Year 7: ASK Yourself!

Subject: English

Unit 3: Journeys (Short Story/Novel Study)

	Launching 1-2	Developing 3-4	Progressing 5-6	Mastering 7-9

Reading (TENSILE)	With help I can read and understand the basic meaning of a selection of short stories or a novel.	I can read and understand the meaning of a selection of short stories or a novel. and I can select important words/phrases.	I can confidently read and understand the meaning of a selection of short stories or a novel. I understand the layers of meaning in language and can explain how language is used for effect.	I can expertly read and understand the meaning of a selection of short stories or a novel. I understand the layers of meaning and can explain how language and structure are used for effect.

Annotation	With help I know how to annotate the key features of a chosen extract, using some simple terminology.	I know how to annotate the key features of a chosen extract, using subject terminology appropriately.	I know and can write confidently to insightfully annotate the key features of a chosen extract, using a wide range of subject terminology accurately.	I understand and can write expertly to perceptively annotate the key features of a chosen extract, using the full range of subject terminology accurately.
Introduction of character AO2	With help I know the basic methods used to introduce a character in a text.	I know the ways a writer uses description, action and dialogue to introduce a character.	I know a wide range of literary and linguistic methods used by a writer to introduce characters and create an impression.	I know about the literary and linguistic methods used by a writer to introduce characters and create an impression, considering the responses of different readers.