Dear Parents and Carers

Sir Graham Balfour School's new uniform

I would like to remind you of the two dates shortly approaching when you can come in and see a number of our students modelling the new uniform; you will be able to speak to senior staff and gather information about suppliers and costs etc.

These dates are: Monday 30th January and Monday 6th February, from 6.00pm onwards to 7.30pm in and around the Hall. There is no formal talk to attend, so please feel free to call in at any time within this range. We will have warm drinks and biscuits available for you.

Our consultation period is now at an end and it is very clear that the views we have been hearing over recent years have now been confirmed by expressions of clear support for a uniform change.

More than two-thirds of parents were fully in favour of the changes, and even more students, around 90%, were fully behind the suggested changes. Students were given opportunities to feed back their views and ideas, and as a result of this, we have decided to switch from blue shirts or blouses, to white. We are still consulting on the colour of socks and tights and will have this settled shortly.

Students will get their introduction to the new uniform in assemblies taking place from Monday 30th January.

I look forward to seeing you on either of the above dates, should you be able to join us. If you cannot, and have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me or Mrs Hartley at the school.

Kind regards

Mrs L Beck
Headteacher
