

Friday 9th March 2018 Week 8

Congratulations to this week's winners of The House Point Cup

Spring Term reports will be coming home on Wednesday

Scholastic Book Fair 2018

Thank you to everyone who came to our extremely busy and successful Book Fair. It was lovely to hear from parents how much they enjoyed the book fair and supporting the school. We have earned £925 in commission to spend on new books for the Library over the coming year. As you know we only hold the book fair for one afternoon from 3pm-5.30pm so this is an incredible amount. Thank you. Mrs Ollason and Mrs Spicer.

It is with huge disappointment that we announce that due to low numbers, our Founders Day Ball has had to be cancelled. My sincere apologies to parents who have already committed to the Ball. If you have paid via our online banking account, this will be refunded directly to you. Any cheque payments will be returned to you.

In our February 2nd Bulletin we told you about Zane and Kai S, who had set up a Just Giving page to raise money for sleeping bags for the homeless. They raised a total of £690 and through everyone's generosity were able to buy and distribute 100 sleeping bags and warm blankets. They wanted to pass on their thanks to all who donated. Well done to Zane and Kai on a fantastic and thoughtful fundraiser

Pupil Absence

Parents are asked to contact the School Office by 9.30am each day that a pupil is absent. This can be done via email; office@stainesprep.co.uk or by telephoning; 01784 450909. We have a 24 hour answerphone facility for out of hour's messages.

SPARKS

Parents wishing their son or daughter to attend afternoon SPARKS at short notice are asked to ring the School Office by 2.30pm. We cannot always get messages to pupils and staff after this time. May we remind parents that if a parent/guardian is not here to collect a pupil at home time or at the end of an extra-curricular club, then that pupil will automatically go to SPARKS.

Thank you to Jashvin R who played the guitar so beautifully in our assembly this week.

Congratulations to Ronit R for being awarded his 10 Merit Certificate this week.
