PUPILS’ £1 MILLION PERSONAL ACCIDENT INSURANCE SCHEME

SCHEME DETAILS AND KEYFACTS EFFECTIVE FROM WINTER TERM 2017

This summary does not contain the full terms and conditions of the policy. These are contained in the schedule and policy wording, held by the school and available for inspection, which together form the policy document. The policy wording is also available at uk.marsh.com/PA1m

Insurers and Type of Insurance
Personal Accident
This personal accident insurance is provided by a panel of three insurers: Chubb European Group Limited (lead insurers); Ecclesiastical Insurance Office plc and AIG Europe Limited.

Duration
The school operates the scheme on an annual basis, with renewal due at the start of each winter term (September). Premiums are paid annually or in termly instalments by the school.
Cover commences for each pupil from the first day of the first term, including the duration of the uninterrupted journey to the school. Cover will continue until the pupil leaves the school, provided the school continues to renew the scheme at the beginning of each winter term (September).

Data Protection

When you are included in the pupils personal accident insurance scheme, we will collect information about you, your children and any appointed guardian. We also collect information from your child’s school, a medical professional or insurer(s). This notice sets out how we use this information, and you should show this to your children (if they are over 16) and any appointed guardian. More information about how we handle personal information can be found in the Marsh Privacy Policy at https://www.marsh.com/uk/privacy-notice.html. More information about how the insurer(s) handle personal information can be found in your policy documentation.

How we use your information: We use personal information to provide our pupils personal accident insurance scheme services. This includes liaising with the insurer(s) and administering your policy, handling claims, complaints and renewals. Insurer(s) use personal information to administer your policy, handle claims, complaints and renewals. Insurers also use personal information to prevent fraud and financial crime.

Sharing Information: We share personal information with insurer(s) of the pupils personal accident insurance scheme. We and/or the insurer(s) share personal information with service providers, including other group companies, sub-contractors and professional advisors and auditors. The insurer(s) also share personal data with other insurers. If required or permitted by law, we and/or the insurer(s) may share information with regulators, the courts, and other authorities.

Legal grounds: The legal bases we rely upon for processing and collecting personal information include one or more of the following grounds set out in data protection law: for us to comply with our legal obligations and also where necessary in the public interest and/or for us to achieve our legitimate interest of providing insurance broking services, while ensuring our reliance on either of these grounds does not unduly harm your rights. Where we and/or the insurer(s) use health information about your child, we may do so on the basis that the information is required to establish, exercise or defend a legal claim or, alternatively, we may rely on consent, which can be given by you or your child if he/she is over 16 or the appointed guardian. Any consent provided to Marsh can be withdrawn at any time by emailing us at: quality.feedback@marsh.com, but this may end your insurance cover under the scheme.

Security and transfers: Both Marsh and the insurer(s) take reasonable steps to keep personal information secure and we maintain data security procedures designed to protect against loss or compromise of personal data. Marsh and/or the insurer(s) may need to send personal information outside of the European Economic Area where data protection laws are different, but this will be done with appropriate protection in place.

Updating your information: It is important that personal information is kept complete and up-to-date. If any of the details you provide us with change, you can update us by emailing quality.feedback@marsh.com.

Your rights: Under data protection law you have certain rights in relation to personal information, including to access your and your child’s information and rectify inaccuracies. Your appointed guardian will also have these rights.

Questions, requests or complaints: If you have any questions or complaints about how we use personal information, or you would like to access or rectify personal information, you can do so by writing to our Head of Quality at the following address:
