

Aims and Objectives

Moreton Hall is a forward-looking school where academic success and extra-curricular achievement are valued equally. The school is known for being friendly and open, not cluttered by petty rules, but with a clear set of values agreed upon and respected by all members of the school community.

We pride ourselves on achieving outstanding academic results whilst ensuring that our students develop the broadest range of skills.

The school's holistic approach to education, engendered in a predominantly boarding environment allows all individuals to fulfil their potential and to develop skills and qualities to enter the adult world with confidence.

Academic excellence, a tailored curriculum, outstanding pastoral care and extra-curricular activities of an extraordinary range and quality are the cornerstones of the school.

Every pupil is nurtured and encouraged to fulfil their potential – our aim, to stretch the most able and support the least confident, informs and guides all that we do.

The aims and objectives of Moreton Hall, as a single sex girls' school are shared by Moreton First, our prep school and Mitchell House, our International Study Centre, which are co-educational.

Although semi-autonomous, both Moreton First and Mitchell share the whole school facilities and some of the same staff.

You can read more about Moreton Hall Senior School, Moreton First and ISC (Mitchell House) in the labelled sections for each part of the school.
